

Moss Hall Gardening, Landscaping & Joinery

Terms and Conditions

The client will be responsible for all payments to Moss Hall Gardening, Landscaping & Joinery unless otherwise notified.

The client shall provide water and electricity at no charge to Moss Hall Gardening, Landscaping & Joinery.

The client shall provide access to the site during Moss Hall Gardening, Landscaping & Joinery's normal working hours and storage space for materials during the contract progress.

Any addition and/or alterations to the schedule shall be properly treated as variations and subject to price change.

Moss Hall Gardening, Landscaping & Joinery is not able to accept responsibility for any damage to (or cost involved with) any underground hazards, obstructions or services not made known to us or apparent on visual inspection.

A deposit of 50% is payable upon acceptance of the written quotation, Final payment to be made following completion and payable on the day of our invoice.

All, or any special conditions, of which Moss Hall Gardening, Landscaping & Joinery has been informed of are noted in the quotation.

It is very important and the responsibility of the Customer to ensure any special/statutory Bylaws/Conditions/Permissions that may be involved have been applied for.

We accept no responsibility for works that have been carried out on land that is not under the ownership of the client and it is assumed that all planning laws or regulations have been applied before commencement of any works.

We are not able to accept responsibility for the well being and maintenance of living plant material, including turf, following practical substantial completion unless a maintenance contract is in existence.

After practical substantial completion, we are not able to accept responsibility for any damage through the elements, including drought, winds, rain and frost to any material(s) including plants.

Upon practical substantial completion the responsibility for the care and watering of all plants, lawns, etc., is handed over to the client and will require regular attention until established.

Severe weather conditions, including drought, may cause the delay of the start date of any works.

All materials on site remain the property of Moss Hall Gardening, Landscaping & Joinery until payment is received in full.

Maintenance is not included in the contract unless specified.

It's the customers responsibility to ensure the terms and conditions are adhered to and any changes should be agreed in writing by both parties before any work commences.

Its confirmed that the customer agrees with our terms and conditions unless otherwise stated in writing and agreed by both parties.